University of Idaho
College of Engineering
Department of Civil Engineering
Department Chairman Position

The University of Idaho College of Engineering invites applications and nominations for the position of Chair and Professor of the Department of Civil Engineering starting fall semester, 2015. This position requires a strong commitment to teaching, department administration, research, and outreach. The Chair is responsible for interpreting university and college objectives and policies for the faculty and staff of the department and through effective leadership, ensuring participation in formulating and carrying out the department’s policies within this framework. The general responsibility for the Chair includes: promoting effective leadership of personnel and management of departmental resources; providing leadership in the development and implementation of department plans and policies; providing for open communication with faculty and staff; fostering excellence in teaching, scholarship and outreach for faculty, students, and staff in the department; assisting higher administration in the assignment and in the evaluation of the services of each member of the department’s faculty and staff; participate in the university and department assessment and accreditation processes; effectively representing all constituents of the department; serving as part of the college’s leadership team and striving for the good of the college; and continuing personal professional development in areas of leadership. Candidates will be expected to teach courses in their area of expertise, mentor graduate students, and participate in the research mission of the university.

The University of Idaho is highly ranked and uniquely positioned as a leader in the Pacific Northwest http://www.uidaho.edu/about/pointsofdistinction, and is located in a beautiful location in the Idaho panhandle http://www.uidaho.edu/about/moscow.

Applicants must apply online by clicking the “Apply online” icon at www.uidaho.edu/human-resources/jobs. Applicants must include a cover letter, curriculum vitae, statement on teaching, research, and leadership philosophies, and contact information for at least five professional references.

Review of applications will begin December 15, 2014, and will continue until the position is filled.

The University of Idaho is an equal opportunity and affirmative action employer. It is the policy of the regents that equal opportunity be afforded in education and employment to qualified persons regardless of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, disability, or status as a disabled veteran or Vietnam-era veteran. It is also the policy of the University of Idaho to not discriminate based on sexual orientation.