Atlantic Coast Consulting, Inc.

Atlantic Coast Consulting, Inc. is seeking a highly motivated and achievement-oriented individual to assist in the design of solid waste, civil/site, and water/wastewater utility projects.

General tasks may include:

· Preparation of design and construction plans including grading design, roadway design, site design, utilities and stormwater management design, erosion and sediment control design as well as profiles, details, and volume calculations

· Research local and state regulations

· Obtain required permits

· Coordination of construction specifications

Successful candidate will prepare drawings using Civil 3D as well as other various design software. Candidate must have working knowledge of AutoCAD/Civil 3D and be proficient in Microsoft Office Package, 1-3 years of experience with a BS in Civil/Environmental Engineering. EIT preferred. Candidate should also be able to demonstrate an ability to communicate in both oral and written media and be able to function effectively both independently and on teams.

Successful candidate will be honest, trustworthy, dedicated and have a desire to create quality relationships both inside and outside of work, and a desire to continue learning as well as mentor others. He or she will also strive to provide quality service, be conscientious and responsive.

Location: Knoxville, TN
http://www.atlcc.net/Careers.php