

Construction Materials Engineering Manager

Manage Construction Materials Department (Laboratory and Technicians)

Supervise and schedule a team of technicians providing services to both public and private clients.

Help market clients

Answer clients questions

Proposal writing

Field and laboratory testing

Invoice oversight

Must be able to troubleshoot construction problems and provide technical guidance and direction to field personnel.

Experience with A2LA a plus .

Review and sign CME reports

Candidate must be Licensed Professional Engineer (PE) (or be able to get license within four months) with a minimum of Bachelor's degree in Civil Engineering. Candidate must possess strong management, technical and communication skills.

NOTES:

Employer will assist with relocation costs.

Additional Salary Information: Pay depends on Experience