Subject: ASNT Engineering Undergraduate Scholarship 2016

The ASNT Engineering Undergraduate Scholarship 2016 is a $3,000 scholarship given in recognition of engineering undergraduate students enrolled in an ABET accredited program and choosing nondestructive testing and evaluation as their field of specialization. The student must prepare a written essay describing how he/she envisions the role of NDE/NDT in his/her career. This scholarship is administered by the ASNT Research Council, University Programs Committee; a maximum of three scholarships are presented each year.

Process: Nominations must be submitted and received at ASNT Headquarters no later than 15 December 2015 (ASNT office is closed Saturdays and Sundays) and shall include the following:

- University's Nomination Form, signed by the Administrative Officer (Department Head or Chair), or his/her designee, of the program in which the candidate is enrolled.
- Outline of the candidate's program of study;
- Official student transcript showing all completed coursework; if educational institution will submit electronically, then request the transcript be submitted through the ASNT website's submission form; if it will not submit transcripts electronically, please request that the transcript be mailed to ASNT Headquarters to the contact information below.
- Three individual letters of recommendation by three faculty members; and,
- A student's original essay describing how he/she envisions the role of NDE/NDT in his/her studies and career.

Nominations must be submitted electronically at https://www.asnt.org/engineeringaward

The University Programs Committee will evaluate each submission and provide its recommendation to the ASNT Board of Directors in the spring of 2016. Announcements of the scholarship winners will be made soon after. Funds will be available in July 2016.

The complete nomination package must be received no later than 15 December 2015.
