

Lafayette College
Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering
Visiting Assistant Professor of Civil Engineering

The Lafayette College Department of Civil & Environmental Engineering (CEE) invites applications for a full-time, visiting Assistant Professor position commencing in January 2021. Candidates must have an earned Ph.D. in civil engineering, possess enthusiasm for teaching, and the ability to teach courses in civil engineering project management and construction management.

Lafayette College is a small, private, undergraduate-only institution located in eastern Pennsylvania, 70 miles from both New York City and Philadelphia. Lafayette emphasizes superior education in engineering and the liberal arts, placing a strong emphasis on student-faculty interaction in the classroom, in research, and in extracurricular activities. Lafayette College is one of the nation's few undergraduate-only institutions offering an ABET-accredited, BS Civil Engineering degree. Further information about the civil engineering department can be found at <http://ce.lafayette.edu/>.

Applicants should submit a cover letter, a statement of teaching philosophy and interests, a curriculum vitae, and a list of references at apply.interfolio.com/77019. Application materials should demonstrate the applicant's ability to teach courses in civil engineering project management and, in the cover letter, applicants should address how their teaching might support Lafayette College's commitment to diversity and inclusion as articulated in the College's diversity statement (<https://about.lafayette.edu/diversity-statement/>). Applications that include all requested materials and that are submitted to apply.interfolio.com/77019 will be reviewed as they are received. For full consideration, applications should be submitted no later than September 1, 2020. Applications will be accepted until the position is filled.

Lafayette College is committed to creating a diverse community: one that is inclusive and responsive, and is supportive of each and all of its faculty, students, and staff. All members of the College community share a responsibility for creating, maintaining, and developing a learning environment in which difference is valued, equity is sought, and inclusiveness is practiced. Lafayette College is an equal opportunity employer and encourages applications from women and minorities.

Questions about the position should be directed to Prof. Mary Roth, Search Committee Chair, at rothm@lafayette.edu. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply.
