

McCormick Hiring Process Guide for Hiring Managers

In an effort to streamline the recruitment for the McCormick School of Engineering, this document has been created to provide a guide for hiring managers. Included in this are the Hiring Process Flowchart, Manual Reference Check Guide, and the Manual Reference Check Question Template.

Please email mcc-staffrequests@northwestern.edu with any questions.

Contact McC HR for list of possible interview questions.</li> <li>9. If there are three or fewer candidates, HM may initiate reference procedures. Determine whether HM would like to use 1) Skill Survey Candidate Feedback Report or 2) Manual Reference Check. (See instructions below on how to conduct a manual reference check.) If Skill Survey is chosen method, candidates must input five references (two managers, three non-managers/co-workers) to initiate the report. Two manager references and one non-manager/co-worker are required for Skill Survey to be complete for external candidates. For internal candidates, two manager references are required for Skill Survey to be complete. If candidate is internal, keep confidential. The candidate does not need to advise his/her direct supervisor until reference check is initiated.</li> </ol>

McCormick School of Engineering Manual Reference Check Guide

Hiring managers may conduct their own reference checks for candidates to whom they would like to extend offers. We ask that hiring managers follow the procedure as outlined in this guide and complete the attached reference check form should they want to conduct a manual reference check.

Overview of procedure:

1. When a finalist candidate is chosen for a position, indicate to the McC Staff Inbox whether you would like to do a manual reference check or a Skill Survey Candidate Feedback Report (this is the current process).
2. The hiring manager chooses one of the two options:
  - a. If a manual reference check is completed, the hiring manager will be required to obtain references from two current or former managers before an offer is extended. It is then incumbent upon the hiring manager to conduct the reference check.
  - b. If a Skill Survey Candidate Feedback Report is requested, HR Talent Acquisition will initiate the reference check with the candidate. It is then incumbent upon the candidate to ensure their references are completed.
3. The offer will be made when either of the previous two conditions in Step 2 are met.

Please email mcc-staffrequests@northwestern.edu if you have any questions.

INSTRUCTIONS:

The hiring manager decides whether to obtain references from a Skill Survey Candidate Feedback Report or a manual reference check. If the hiring manager would like to proceed with a manual reference check, follow the steps below.

1. Conduct reference checks for at least two managers using the question template below.
2. Ask the candidate for their references. Request the candidate contact their references to ensure they are willing and able to respond to a reference check.
3. If, after three attempts to contact the references are met with no response, ask the candidate to have their references respond to the hiring manager or ask for new references from the candidate.
4. Upon completion of the reference check, inform the McC Staff Inbox that the reference check has been completed.
  - a. Include below Manual Reference Check Form for each of the references in the email. Name the file according to the following format:
    - i. Candidate LASTNAME, FIRSTNAME – Reference 1
    - ii. Candidate LASTNAME, FIRSTNAME – Reference 2

Do NOT ask about questions related to the following topics: Race, religion, age, gender, sexual orientation, disabilities, health, marital status, criminal history, or salary history.
