

ITALIAN FAQ SHEET

Whom do I talk to about ...

...taking the placement test or finding my results?	Paola Morgavi
...WCAS language requirements?	Paola Morgavi
...majoring or minoring in Italian?	Domietta Torlasco
...study abroad?	Paola Morgavi or Paola Nasti or Domietta Torlasco
...transferring credits from study abroad?	Paola Morgavi
...Italian 101: Elementary Italian?	Paola Morgavi or Daniela Pozzi Pavan
...Italian 102: Intermediate Italian?	Paola Morgavi
...Italian 133 & 134: Intensive Italian?	Paola Morgavi or Massimiliano Delfino
...Italian 200-level and 300-level courses?	Domietta Torlasco

CONTACT INFO

Massimiliano Delfino
847.467.1987
m.delfino@northwestern.edu

Daniela Pozzi Pavan
847.467.1448
d-pavan@northwestern.edu

Paola Morgavi
Italian Language Program Director
847.491.8265
p-morgavi@northwestern.edu

Domietta Torlasco
Director of Undergraduate Studies, Italian 847.491.8261
d-torlasco@northwestern.edu@northwestern.edu

THE UNDERGRADUATE MAJOR IN ITALIAN

The program for majors in Italian Studies consists of:

- Thirteen courses of which at least ten must be offered by the FRIT department
- Up to four others may be courses dealing with Italian culture offered by other departments, including one or more courses on literary theory
- Courses taken outside the department must be approved by the Director of Undergraduate Studies
- Of the ten courses taken in the FRIT department, no more than five can be courses taught in English
- Of the fourteen courses required for the major, at least eight must be 300-level
- 100-level courses do not count towards the major

Students returning from a study abroad program in Italy may receive up to 8 credits (depending on the length of the program) if the contents of the courses taken abroad relate in a substantive way to an aspect of Italian culture.

*All returning students must take two 300 level courses in Italian in their senior year.

THE UNDERGRADUATE MINOR IN ITALIAN

The program for minors in Italian Studies consists of 6 units:

- At most three courses taught in English
- At most two 200-level courses taught in Italian
- At least four 300-level courses

Students returning from study abroad must take at least one 300-level course in Italian in their senior year.

For more information, contact Domietta Torlasco at: d-torlasco@northwestern.edu, and see our website: www.frenchanditalian.northwestern.edu/undergraduate/italian/