
ITALIAN FAQ SHEET

Whom do I talk to about ...

...taking the placement test or finding my results?	Daniela Pozzi Pavan
...WCAS language requirements?	Daniela Pozzi Pavan
...majoring or minoring in Italian?	Paola Nasti
...study abroad?	Daniele Biffanti or Paola Nasti
...transferring credits from study abroad?	Paola Nasti
...Italian 101: Elementary Italian?	Daniela Pozzi Pavan
...Italian 102: Intermediate Italian?	Paola Morgavi
...Italian 133 & 134: Intensive Italian?	Daniela Pozzi Pavan
...Italian 200-level and 300-level courses?	Paola Nasti

CONTACT INFO

Paola Nasti
Director of Undergraduate Studies in Italian paola.nasti@northwestern.edu

Daniela Pozzi Pavan
Italian Language Program Director
d-pavan@northwestern.edu

THE UNDERGRADUATE MAJOR IN ITALIAN

The program for majors in Italian Studies consists of:

- Thirteen courses of which at least ten must be offered by the FRIT department
- Up to four others may be courses dealing with Italian culture offered by other departments, including one or more courses on literary theory
- Courses taken outside the department must be approved by the Director of Undergraduate Studies
- Of the ten courses taken in the FRIT department, no more than five can be courses taught in English
- Of the fourteen courses required for the major, at least eight must be 300-level
- 100-level courses do not count towards the major

Students returning from a study abroad program in Italy may receive up to 8 credits (depending on the length of the program) if the contents of the courses taken abroad relate in a substantive way to an aspect of Italian culture.

*All returning students must take two 300 level courses in Italian in their senior year.

THE UNDERGRADUATE MINOR IN ITALIAN

The program for minors in Italian Studies consists of 6 units:

- No more than three Italian courses taught in English
- At least three Italian courses at the 300 level
- At least one course at the 300 level taught in Italian

For more information, contact Paola Nasti at: paola.nasti@northwestern.edu, and see our website: www.frenchanditalian.northwestern.edu/undergraduate/italian/