

GLOBAL ENGINEERING TREK TO TAIWAN 2026: INNOVATION AND HIGH TECH

- Explore innovation and entrepreneurship in high tech fields such as computer science, manufacturing, app development, electronic devices, and sustainable supply chain management
- Spend time with fellow Northwestern students and faculty touring innovation incubators, global corporations, and research institutes
- Meet and engage with student peers at National Taiwan University
- Need-based financial aid is available.

Travel Dates	June 2026
Eligibility	Sophomores, Juniors
Application Deadline:	February 2026

OPEN TO ALL MAJORS

HIGHLY SUBSIDIZED

Contact:
William Kurth
william.kurth@northwestern.edu

The Global Engineering Trek to Taiwan is jointly organized and supported by McCormick Global Initiatives, the Paula M. Trienens Institute for Sustainability and Energy, the Office of International Relations (OIR), and the Friends of Taiwan Foundation.

