SPANISH LANGUAGE AND CULTURE IN BARCELONA

LOCATION: Universitat Pompeu Fabra, Barcelona
TERM: Summer Quarter
CREDITS: 3 units
APPLICATION DEADLINE: Winter Quarter (TBA)

SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION:
Live in Barcelona, one of Europe’s most cosmopolitan and dynamic cities, within the region of Catalonia. Through a combination of coursework and excursions to Madrid and sites in and around Barcelona, students will increase their Spanish language skills and experience a city and culture where modernity and tradition go hand in hand.

COURSES:
• Spanish Grammar
• Culture and Society in Modern Spain
• Spanish Conversation

Courses are offered at multiple levels, from high-beginner to superior, and can be counted as elective, theme, major, or minor credit.

“Studying abroad in Barcelona was the best decision I’ve made at Northwestern. I improved my Spanish skills immensely, made incredible new friends, learned a lot about myself, and had tons of fun exploring Barcelona.” — JORDAN KELLY

Northwestern GLOBAL LEARNING
northwestern.edu/abroad
global@northwestern.edu