

SHERIDAN PARK CONSULTING

Profile

Jacqueline J. Loewe, Founding Partner of Sheridan Park Consulting, is a communications executive with over 25 years of experience within the professional services industry. Ms. Loewe provides relationship building training and coaching for professional service-related firms. Prior to creating Sheridan Park Consulting over five years ago, Ms. Loewe was an equity partner with an architecture firm and a landscape architecture firm where she was in charge of marketing, client relations and community outreach / engagement.

Education

Bachelor of Arts in Public Administration, Miami University, Oxford, Ohio

Professional Affiliations

Lambda Alpha International, Ely Chapter - Past President, current Board Member
Commercial Real Estate Executive Women – Past Board Member, member for over 25 years
Society of Marketing Professional Services – Past Board Member, member for over 20 years

Community Involvement

Cook County Forest Preserve Foundation – Board Member, Co-Chair Conservation Cup
Friends of the Chicago River – Board Secretary
Uptown United – Development Partners Chairperson
Girls in the Game – Past Board Chair, Board Member Emeritus
Presence Saint Joseph Hospital – Past Board Member and Golf Outing Co-Chair