

About

Tom Mitoraj is Senior Vice President for exp Federal, a multidiscipline Architecture and Engineering firm headquartered in Chicago and providing world-class services to the Department of Defense, Department of State, and other US Federal agencies in locations around the globe. He is a registered Professional Engineer, a certified Project Management Professional, and a certified Safety Professional.

A recognized leader in the AE and construction industry, Tom has been an Adjunct Professor since 2010 at Northwestern University, where he teaches in the Master of Project Management (MPM) program and Master of Science in Executive Management for Design and Construction (EMDC) program hosted by the McCormick School of Engineering.

Tom served as a Naval Officer in the Civil Engineer Corps of the United States Navy. He qualified as a Seabee Combat Warfare Officer, warranted Level III Contracting Officer, Joint Officer, Embarkation Officer, and Master Training Specialist. His experience spans the full facility and infrastructure life cycle spectrum from planning, design, construction, operations and maintenance, and sustainment, as well as disposal. He retired as a Commander after serving in numerous units around the world including:

- Chief Engineer, Joint Task Force, Horn of Africa (CJTF HOA) – Djibouti, Africa
- Northeast IPT Leader and Assistant Ops Off., NAVFAC MIDLANT, Norfolk, Virginia
- Base Operating Support (BOS) Program Manager, Navy Region Northeast, Groton, CT
- Joint Staff Engineer/Branch Chief, US Forces Japan, Yokota AB, Japan
- Resident Officer in Charge of Construction, NAVFAC SW, MCAS Miramar, San Diego, CA
- Instructor/Assistant Division Director, Civil Engineer Corps Officers School, California
- Company Commander/Det Officer in Charge, Naval Mobile Construction Battalion 133
- Assistant Resident Officer in Charge of Construction, OICC, Pearl Harbor, Hawaii
- Planning Officer, Naval Station Rodman, Panama Canal, Panama

His military awards include the Defense Meritorious Service Medal (2), Meritorious Service Medal, Navy/Marine Corps Commendation Medal (5 awards), Joint Achievement Medal (2), Navy/Marine Corps Achievement Medal, Humanitarian Service Medal, Expert Rifleman Medal and various Campaign and Unit Awards

Tom received a B.A. degree in Physics from Carleton College, Northfield, Minnesota, a Master of Science and a B.S. degree in Civil Engineering from the University of Illinois, Champaign-Urbana. He also completed the Command and Staff Program of the Naval War College in Newport, Rhode Island and the JPME Phase II program at the Joint Forces Staff College in Norfolk, Virginia.

When not working or taking part in family activities, Tom can usually be found on a tennis court. He is certified by the Professional Tennis Registry (PTR) and a member of the United States Tennis Association (USTA). He is the author of the book, Raising Capable Children with Common Sense, Basic Decency, and Passion published by Outskirts Press and available on Amazon. Tom is an Eagle Scout and has been involved with Boy Scouts in a variety of roles including Scoutmaster, Assistant Scoutmaster, Merit Badge Counselor, and other volunteer positions.

Tom is married to Elba Olmedo Mitoraj and they have five children. He lives in Barrington, Illinois, near his hometown of Chicago.